

GOTHENBURG CHAMBER AG SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Gothenburg Chamber Ag Scholarship Program was established to assist students graduating from Gothenburg High Schools who desire to attain higher education.

Up to two $750 scholarships will be awarded annually for currently graduating high school seniors.

These scholarships may be used at any two-year accredited junior college or technical school. A panel of Chamber ag committee members will be appointed to review applications and conduct personal interviews, then select the scholarship recipients.

Scholarship recipients must meet the following requirement to receive the scholarship:

1. Maintain a minimum 2.5 grade point average on 12 completed credit hours their initial semester after being awarded the scholarship.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the student upon completion of their first semester and enrollment of the following semester. The scholarship will be forfeited if not used within 12 months after the date of award.

Application Deadline: April 1st
