Clint Demoret Memorial Barbecue Competition

2022 Harvest Festival

Sunday, Sept. 18 — Gothenburg's Ehmen Park

Who Can Participate?
Any person with any skill level can participate in the barbecue competition. However, space is limited, so sign up today to secure your spot. Sign up is required by Sept. 1.

What are the Competition Categories?
Participants are asked to cook brisket, pulled pork and ribs. You are free to incorporate any kind of barbecue style, wet or dry, and your choice of fuel source.

What are the Costs?
The cost is $75 per team. The Chamber of Commerce will provide you with the meats up to 48 hours prior to the event. The Chamber will provide plates, utensils, napkins, water, and chips. If you are making a side, you will be responsible for those costs.

Are there Awards?
Trophies will be given out for Best Ribs, Best Brisket, Best Pulled Pork, Best Specialty/Side and Demoret Family Choice. A $250 cash prize will be given for Overall Best in Show that receives the highest judging points in all categories.

Other Important Info:

- The barbecue site is the gravel parking lot on the west side of the Gothenburg Historical Museum, across the street south of Ehmen Park.
- Setup and start time will begin on Saturday the 17th with the specific time to be determined. Food is expected to be judged at 11 am and serving will be from noon until food is gone on Sunday September 18th.
- Please ensure you bring a table and serving supplies for your food and bring food storage containers or pans that have proper fitting lids.
- You may leave your equipment overnight, at your own risk.
- Electricity will be available with 110v outlets. Bring a generator if more power is necessary.

Please submit this form and registration fee to the Gothenburg Chamber of Commerce.
